Dear Dona Gabriela:

I have read with great pleasure the announcement in the newspapers concerning the Nobel Prize for Literature which has recently been awarded to you. I want to send you my heartiest congratulations and to tell you how happy I am that your work in literature has received this splendid recognition. You certainly deserve all the laurels that this award implies.

I have learned recently that you intend to go to the United States soon. This is very welcome news. I hope that I may have the pleasure of seeing you again soon and hearing more about your plans.

Cordially yours,

Charles Edward Eaton
